Dear Health Officer:

We are pleased to share the enclosed information regarding the Local Health Department (LHD) Plan of Organization. This letter and its enclosures provide essential information for structuring your plan, including the following:

- LHD Plan of Organization Instructional Guide
- Local Public Health Services Matrix (Attachment A)
- Laws Applicable to Local Public Health (Attachment B)
- LHD Health Officer and Medical Director Requirements and Qualifications Review (Attachment C)
- LHD Plan of Organization Checklist (Attachment D)

As part of the assessment of the Plan of Organization, Local Health Services will review the last three (3) years of your agency's annual reports and county audits, and applicable websites. You are required to submit the Plan of Organization to MDHHS once every three (3) years; no later than sixty (60) days before the scheduled Michigan Local Public Health Accreditation Program site review. We hope our joint local and state efforts to standardize the LHD Plan of Organization and its components are of value. Questions regarding the processing of the enclosed documents may be directed to MDHHS Local Health Services, MDHHS-Localhealthservices@michigan.gov.
